

Ahmed Elsherif

Instructor

Career synopsis

I have retired from Schlumberger after 37 years of different international assignments covering field work, management, interpretation development and teaching. After retirement in 2018, I have worked as a freelance instructor teaching open hole, cased hole and LWD logging and interpretation.

Professional experience

October 1981-August 2018 - Field / Management / Training / Technical Positions - Schlumberger Oilfield Services, Qatar , Saudi , Egypt, India, Libya, Kuwait, Dubai, Oman, Iraq

- Field Engineer / Account Manager / Log Analyst / Wireline Domain Champion / DCS Operations Manager / LWD Domain Champion
- Personnel training
- Knowledge test / assessment

Education and qualifications

Type	Name
1976 - 1981, Bachelor	Cairo University, Electrical Engineering
	Schlumberger Oilfield Services, Several training courses on SLB technology, hours

Language: English, Arabic