TECHNICAL EDUCATION ACADEMY

Ayman Khaled

Instructor

A strategic, collaborative, and proven change leader of multi-discipline Local and international experience
With more than twenty years in managerial capacity in several multinational organizations
Lived and Worked in Egypt, North Africa, Caspian See, South-East Asia, and Arabian Gulf Area
Demonstrated ability to drive top and bottom-line results to world class levels through focus on people, process, and systems
Passion for talent development making supply chain a competitive advantage for the business.
Extensive experience in Leading major drilling and workover projects and proven history in oil and gas huge drilling & workover projects. Showed high operations' managerial support and effective strategic planning
Instrumental in design and implementation of reinvention projects, initiative-taking, professional with leadership skills while a dynamic member in the local and regional petroleum engineering societies
Experience in major companies' integrations with strong focus on creating a focused one company culture, strong financial delivery, best in class Safety, Quality and Compliance processes and transforming business processed to a competitive advantage
Capability to lead diverse cultures and virtual teams with wide people leadership experience after having different global exposure/experience across North Africa , Middle east & SEA.
Training developer designing blended learning solutions and competency assurance management system projects.