

Muhammad Jandula

Student

Jandula is a seasoned Educationist and Corporate Professional. He has demonstrated Leadership, Training & Development, Mentoring, Interpersonal and Communication Skills during his over 35 years Operational and Training experience in Energy and Manufacturing sectors. He has served as Teaching Assistant at Mississippi State University and New Jersey Institute of Engineering and Technology USA. Apart from educating and training, he has held Practical Leadership Roles in Plant Operations, Industrial Engineering, Joint Ventures, Field Management and Procurement & Logistics.

An Industrial Engineer with Masters from USA and an MBA, Jandula has collaborated/ worked with Global Players/ Multinationals like Eni, OMV, MOL, PGNig, PPL (Formerly Burma Oil Company UK), and Al-Futaim UAE etc. A partial list of delegates in his previous programs/ conferences include companies such as:

Petronas Malaysia
Engen South Africa
EGENCO Malawi
Ministry of Energy Brunei
EGAT- Electricity Generating Authority of Thailand
Shell Brunei
IRPC Clean Power Company Limited
Ministry of Energy Mozambique
NRDC Papua New Guinea

Jandula has attended international professional development programs from Stanford University, USA, Crown Agents, UK and JCCP, Japan. He has also served as Conference Chairman and Speaker and delivered keynote addresses at the Global Conferences held in Vienna, Berlin, London, Riyadh and Abu Dhabi. Among his participants, Jandula is known for his pleasing personality, applicable tools and interactive style of presentation