TECHNICAL EDUCATION ACADEMY

Sanyaolu Oludotun

Instructor

Results-driven Health, Safety and Environment (HSE) professional with over 16 years of experience in occupational health and safety, business development, education management, administration and corporate training. Holds a Bachelor's degree in Plant Sciences and Applied Zoology, a Master's degree in Public Health and is currently advancing expertise in Industrial Ecology. Certified in NEBOSH IGC, ISO 45001 Lead Auditor. Proven ability to develop and deliver HSE training, implement safety management systems, drive business growth and lead multidisciplinary teams. Strong background in risk management, regulatory compliance, stakeholder engagement, project coordination and workforce capacity development. Passionate about environmental sustainability, continuous improvement and leveraging research and innovation to enhance workplace safety and organizational performance.