

Ahmed Abdelmouiz

Instructor

Algerian Doctor of philosophy and Experienced Process Operations Engineer and Trainer with over 20 years in the oil and gas industry, including a decade specializing in training, course development, and on-the-job training (OJT). Expertise in process operations, safety, and environmental management with a strong background in both classroom instruction and practical training.