

Mahmoud Habib

Instructor

Career synopsis

I'm electrical and Instrument Engineer with +13 years of practical and theoretical training experience in different industrial systems as Power stations , oil & Gas , Steel , Cement ,.....etc

I'm a highly skilled and experienced electrical and Instrument Engineer with a strong technical background in the oil and gas industry. My career objective is to secure challenging and demanding job in instrumentation and industrial automation, in a growth oriented organization and to employ the knowledge and skills acquired during my career to contribute to the team effort to achieve group goals and at the same time endeavor to acquire newer and sophisticated skills.

Professional experience

January 2014-Until now - Section Head of electrical and instrumentation - Gulf Of Suez Petroleum Company, Egypt

- I'm electrical and Instrument Engineer with +13 years of practical and theoretical training experience in different industrial systems as Power stations , oil & Gas , Steel , Cement ,.....etc
I'm a highly skilled and experienced electrical and Instrument Engineer with a strong technical background in the oil and gas industry. My career objective is to secure challenging and demanding job in instrumentation and industrial automation, in a growth oriented organization and to employ the knowledge and skills acquired during my career to contribute to the team effort to achieve group goals and at the same time endeavor to acquire newer and sophisticated skills.
- Personnel training

Education and qualifications

Type	Name
2005 - 2010, Bachelor	Banha University, Faculty of Engineering, Electrical Engineering

Language: English