

Mustafa Hamed

Instructor

Career synopsis

Graduated as Mechanical Power engineer, since yr 2000 I've been working in the field of maintenance & operations in Oil & Gas industry, I've got a considerable experience in operation, maintenance, inspection, overhauling of different mechanical equipment, I've participated in many tasks with SAP project team (CMMS) during implementation phases, also have worked on individuals training & competencies development; as I've managed competency program for maintenance dept. juniors (IDP) as a coach then as an assessor (Certified by SQA); in addition I've got the opportunity to do freelance jobs as inspections/overhauls/technical training within MENA region companies; & finally certified from SMRP as CMRP.

Professional experience

May 2001-Until now - Maintenance Manager & Assessor - Oil and Gas production co., previously Shell Joint venture, Egypt

- Managing all Mechanical Rotating & Static Equipment Maintenance Process
Managing Competency development program for Juniors
Enhancing Availability, Reliability & Maintenance Plan for Gas Turbines
- Curriculum development
- Personnel training
- Knowledge test / assessment

March 2010-Until now - Trainer and Instructor - Freelance, EGY, UAE, OMN, KSA.

- Approved Instructor for ADNOC, UAE.
Approved Instructor for OMIFCO, OMN.
Approved Mechanical Trainer for PDO, OMN.
Over 15 years facilitating technical courses for maintenance & mechanical candidates in the field of O&G, Energy, Power & Industry.
- Personnel training
- Knowledge test / assessment

Education and qualifications

Type	Name
1994 - 1999, Bachelor	Faculty of Engineering, Helwan University, Mechanical Power Engineering

Language: English, Arabic